

South Florida
Book Festival
& Literary Conference
African-American Research
Library and Cultural Center

7 types of Queens that Kings desire

On Saturday, July 23, 2016 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., the South Florida Book Festival will host a variety of authors and activities for the entire family. One of these activities includes a panel on dating tips for lifelong happiness.

Women in many ancient cultures were honored as queens and goddesses, so what—you may ask—has happened to that powerful appreciation? This panel of dating “experts” will share their passionate knowledge on how to make yourself worthy for your potential spouse and how to honor that person you wish to invite into your life.

Sign up for this and other free events at www.southflorida-book-festival.eventbrite.com.

Also check out the “Night of the Literary Stars” at the South Florida Book Festival on Friday evening, July 22, 2016 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Tickets are $25 advance or $30 at the door.

Kevin Dorival, left, is the author of The Courage to Believe and 7 types of Queens That Kings Desire. He is a master marketer, dynamic speaker and self-help guru.

Jeff Carroll, center, is the author of The Hip Hop Dating Guide which teaches “how to be a good dater” and “maximize your personal dating process.”

Suzette Speaks (right) is president of the South Florida Black Journalists Association, and an attorney. Some of her guiding principles are: “Think Independently. Love People. Explore Possibilities. Share Experiences.”

African-American Research Library and Cultural Center
2650 Sistrunk Boulevard • Fort Lauderdale, FL 33311
954-357-6210